LANDRY

HON. JON C. PORTER—

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 12, 2008

Mr. PORTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Raymond Landry for his 35 years of distinguished service to Pardee Homes and to the Southern Nevada community.

Mr. Landry has been a resident of Southern Nevada since 1968, where he has lived with his wife Marge Landry, President/Broker of Landry & Associates, Inc. Mr. Landry began his successful career with Pardee Homes in 1972 and in 1980 he began leading the local sales force in Las Vegas. As Assistant Vice President of Sales, he is well regarded for his commitment to service and professionalism. Over the course of his tenure with Pardee Homes, Mr. Landry has earned countless honors, including the Nevada PTA Community Partner of the Year, the Greater Las Vegas Association of Realtors Builder of the Year, and the Shade Tree Builder of the Year.

Mr. Landry used his expertise and passion in other areas of the housing industry. His founding of and working with various organizations exemplifies such leadership. He was appointed to the Nevada Real Estate Commission by then Governor Bob Miller in 1997. He served for two 3-year terms as the President of the Commission. He is also a founding member of the Southern Nevada Sales and Marketing Council. Furthermore, he is a member of the Southern Nevada Home Builders Association and the Association of the Real Estate License Law officials. Former Nevada Governor Kenny Guinn proclaimed a day in his honor in 2001 describing Mr. Landry as, "an industry leader with the highest professional and ethical standards".

Madam Speaker, I am proud to honor Mr. Raymond Landry for his commitment to Pardee Homes, as well as his efforts throughout the Southern Nevada community. I praise his accomplishments and wish him the best of luck in the future.

SUNSET MEMORIAL

HON. TRENT FRANKS

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 12, 2008

Mr. FRANKS of Arizona. Madam Speaker, I stand once again before this body with yet another Sunset Memorial.

It is March 12, 2008 in the land of the free and the home of the brave, and before the sun set today in America, almost 4,000 more defenseless unborn children were killed by abortion on demand—just today. That is more than the number of innocent American lives that were lost on September 11th, only it happens every day.

It has now been exactly 12,833 days since the travesty called Roe v. Wade was handed down. Since then, the very foundation of this Nation has been stained by the blood of almost 50 million of our own children.

Some of them, Madam Speaker, cried and screamed as they died, but because it was amniotic fluid passing over their vocal cords instead of air, we couldn't hear them.

All of them had at least four things in common.

They were each just little babies who had done nothing wrong to anyone. Each of them died a nameless and lonely death. And each of their mothers, whether she realizes it immediately or not, will never be the same. And all the gifts that these children might have brought to humanity are now lost forever.

Yet even in the full glare of such tragedy, this generation clings to a blind, invincible ignorance while history repeats itself and our own silent genocide mercilessly annihilates the most helpless of all victims to date, those yet unborn.

Madam Speaker, perhaps it is important for those of us in this Chamber to remind ourselves again of why we are really all here.

Thomas Jefferson said, "The care of human life and its happiness and not its destruction is the chief and only object of good government."

The phrase in the 14th amendment capsulizes our entire Constitution. It says: "No state shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law." Madam Speaker, protecting the lives of our innocent citizens and their constitutional rights is why we are all here. It is our sworn oath.

The bedrock foundation of this Republic is that clarion declaration of the self-evident truth that all human beings are created equal and endowed by their creator with the unalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Every conflict and battle our Nation has ever faced can be traced to our commitment to this core self-evident truth. It has made us the beacon of hope for the entire world. It is who we are.

And yet Madam Speaker, another day has passed, and we in this body have failed again to honor that foundational commitment. We failed our sworn oath and our God-given responsibility, as we broke faith with nearly 4,000 more innocent American babies who died today without the protection we should have been giving them.

But perhaps tonight, Madam Speaker, maybe someone new who hears this sunset memorial will finally realize that abortion really does kill little babies, that it hurts mothers in ways that we can never express, and that 12,833 days spent killing nearly 50 million unborn children in America is enough; and that the America that rejected human slavery and marched into Europe to arrest the Nazi Holocaust, is still courageous and compassionate enough to find a better way for mothers and their babies than abortion on demand.

So tonight, Madam Speaker, may we each remind ourselves that our own days in this sunshine of life are also numbered and that all too soon each of us will walk from these Chambers for the very last time.

And if it should be that this Congress is allowed to convene on yet another day to come, may that be the day when we finally hear the cries of the innocent unborn. May that be the day we find the humanity, the courage, and the will to embrace together our human and our constitutional duty to protect the least of these, our tiny American brothers and sisters, from this murderous scourge upon our Nation called abortion on demand.

It is March 12, 2008—12,833 days since Roe v. Wade first stained the foundation of this nation with the blood of its own children—this, in the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, I wish to recognize Mr. Nick McNair, Jr., who resides in Lexington, SC, on the occasion of his retirement from AgFirst Farm Credit Bank on April 1, 2008.

Much of Nick McNair's life and career has been dedicated to agriculture and the cooperative Farm Credit System. At a young age, Nick began to appreciate the vital role that agriculture played in his community and in his home State. After receiving his education from Leary Elementary School and Edison High School, Nick pursued his education at Georgia Southern College in Statesboro, GA and graduated in 1967.

From 1961 through 1963, Nick supported himself by working at Morris Cattle Company in Leary, GA. He also worked for Arlington Oil Mills, Inc., in Arlington, GA, in their cotton ginning operation. As Nick's interest in agriculture continued to grow, he worked for the Baker and Newton County ASCS offices as a performance reporter during the summers of 1963–1966.

In August of 1967, Nick began his career with the Farm Credit System as a fieldman and association appraiser for the Federal Land
